

CHILDS Advises Accountable Healthcare Staffing in its Sale to Mitsui & Co., Ltd

Atlanta, GA – July 27, 2017 – CHILDS Advisory Partners (“CHILDS”) served as the exclusive financial advisor to Accountable Healthcare Staffing (“Accountable”), a leading provider of quality healthcare staffing solutions, in its sale to Mitsui & Co., Ltd.

Kevin S. Little, Accountable’s Chief Executive Officer stated, “In the five years since Accountable was formed, by focusing on quality and innovation, we have rapidly grown into one of the largest healthcare staffing companies in the United States. Combining forces with Mitsui will open many new doors, which will enable Accountable to continue to grow and prosper. This is an exciting new chapter for Accountable and its employees, and we are thrilled to be joining Mitsui’s network of companies.”

“I would like to welcome Accountable to be a part of the U.S. healthcare staffing business that we have at Mitsui”, said Seiki (Stan) Hirota, Chairman of the Board, UHS Partners Inc., which is a subsidiary formed by Mitsui to create long term value related to an eco-system of healthcare talent. “Mitsui is committed in providing new value to the society through solutions that help optimize the healthcare workforce, and at the same time, provide meaningful career opportunities for the employees involved in providing such services. Accountable will be a great extension to the platform we have established so far, and represents a strategically compelling opportunity for Mitsui to position itself to provide full suite of healthcare workforce solutions to our healthcare clients in the U.S. and abroad.”

“Accountable and its talented leadership team is an important addition for Mitsui as they increase the scope of their U.S. and worldwide healthcare organization,” said Cooper Mills, Managing Director at CHILDS Advisory Partners. “We look forward to hearing of their growth for years to come.”
